1969

THE
JAMES MONROE
ANNUAL STAFF
PRESENTS

THE

Central Rappahannock Regional Library
1201 Caroline Street
Fredericksburg, VA 22401

The seal which appears on the cover of the MONROE ECHO is a presidential seal bearing a profile of James Monroe. On the reverse side of the authentic seal are the hands of an Indian and a soldier, and a peace pipe and a tomahawk which symbolize "Peace and Friendship."

The seals were first minted in silver when George Washington was President. With the incoming of each President, a new seal was made. Replicas are made in bronze by the United States Mint in Philadelphia and have been sought after as museum pieces. There is one on the James Monroe Memorial Library at the James Monroe Law Office.

Foreword

The MONROE ECHO is a symbol of the spirit and life at James Monroe High School. We have attempted to make this book a complete pictorial account of the many and varied activities at James Monroe. May it long represent the joyful and inspiring memories of 1969.

DEDICATION

Each year the Senior Class dedicates the Monroe Echo to an outstanding faculty member. This year the class has chosen a person who has shown tireless enthusiasm in various activities of the school. The class feels we have chosen a faculty member who well deserves this honor. He has done much to help make our years at JM worthwhile. He has given countless hours to such projects as the Homecoming, the Prom, and the Monroe Echo. The graduating class of 1969 is happy to dedicate the Monroe Echo to Mr. Johnny P. Johnson.

Another diet down the drain.

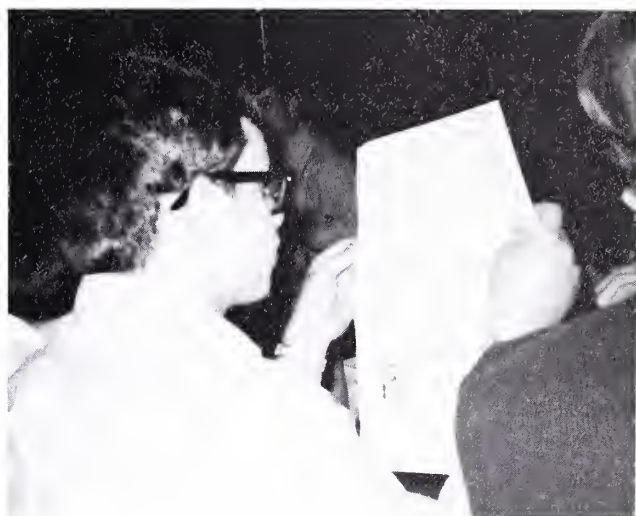

My, Steve, you've really changed.

I've been a good teacher, Santa.

Candid

Gee, I wonder where my name is??

Before

and

After

We've got those senior girls in the palms of our hands!

But Steve, I'm not worth fighting over!

Who said I couldn't cook???

Who said there was a lot of work to be done?

But Burton, we always like you the way you were.

Mrs. Chick didn't keep us busy all the time.

O.K., we'll do it that way!

CLASS POEM

THE END OR THE BEGINNING

WHAT

are we doing here?
Are we all grown-up and ready to go?
But where will we go?
What will we do?
Must we go
alone?

YES . . .

we must go
alone.
Even though we have all been together since way back when--
It's time for us to realize THIS is what they call

THE END OF THE BEGINNING!

But first let's all understand the world
does not stop here!
For there will be more
Life, Love, and Friends . . .
All that could prove so DEAR

So now we leave our JM and go out on our own . . .
To conquer and succeed in our new life and our future home.

CLASS HISTORY

Our whole problem began 12 years ago when we first started school. We learned our A's and B's and Arithmetic. Those years were a drag. Not much happened. We were blessed with Dennis Dunnington and Hogie Garnett who skipped the first grade. Some of us behaved; some of us misbehaved such as Kenny Limerick, Virginia and Lexa. Kenny was sent to the principal's office more than once. Lexa and Virginia were always being separated.

The fifth grade was a year none of us will ever forget. Then, most of us were going steady.

We went to parties and dances, and all of us had a great time!

We had our May Day and May Court: Maid of Honor that year was Susan Limerick, and Prince was Ben Wafle.

This was the year all the girls wore shorts under their dresses for Phys. Ed. This also was the year boys and girls were on the Safety Patrol. There were fights between students such as Ginger Silvey, Barbara Weible, and Gail Loudon. There were bigger fights than that between Susan Limerick and Cathy Jennings. Boy, you had to watch out when those two got to fighting! The dust really flew!!!

The sixth grade at Layfayette was an exciting year for all of us. We were the superior heads of our class, while at Maury, things were going on, too. Layfayette had the first sixth grade class to change rooms for different subjects. Maury continued to sit in their old desks day after day.

Yes, this year was the year we realized that there was another part to our class. Maury School! This was also the start of Bill Clark's love life with Kitty Turner. This was the year of more and more parties. While Maury was having trouble with the boys at parties in getting them to dance, Layfayette wasn't having any problem at all. Especially when Kitty Turner's parties turned out to be tuff competition for Roman orgies. We had our changing classes. Learning about triangles and circles in Mrs. Heim's class proved interesting. We will never forget the great times in History with Mr. Spratt and his Civil War relics. None of us will ever forget Mr. Conaway, our great Science teacher. It was something new and, believe us, it was different! This was the year Mary Ann Slothouber was thrown out of the locker room with just a slip on. Mrs. Walsh was always making someone stand in the trash can for punishment. She made Henry Heubi wear a bow in his hair because it was too long. We went to Jamestown and had a picnic at St. Clair Brooks Park. That was the year of the multiplication dance. The girls always had to do the choosing. Seventh grade couples were: Jeppy Moss & Marianne Smith, Karen Graves & David Owen, Bill Clark & Margaret Riddle, Anne Embrey &

Bob Coffin, Morgan Kash & Marcia Hibben, and Bill Clark & Alease Jett. There was the fad of the locker loops. More than one shirt was ripped that year by girls.

In the eighth grade, we were pretty scared by coming to J.M. Most of us wanted to leave after the first day. We never had such a hard time changing classes and finding rooms before in our lives. This was also the year that the band of students from Monfort Academy came to J.M. We received such students as Scootie Ferrara, Steve and Nancy Matter, Steve Spratt, Kearin O'Connell, John Danahy, and Ed Amrhein. Also from other schools, Becky Ross, Debby Blake, Pat Daniel, Morgan Kash, and Marcia Hibben. Couples that year were: Dennis Dunnington & Debby Blake.

The ninth grade brought the arrival of Mark Taylor who was something else. This was a year of study, and our class began to prosper and to become the great class of '69. This was the year, also, that Henry Marsh arrived. Right, Ging? Remember when Karl Gentry was part of our class?! Couples that year were: Debbie Tipton & Ben Wafle, Jim Campbell & Anna Moore Butzner, Bill Clark & Susan Limerick, and Dennis Dunnington & Marianne Smith.

In the tenth grade, the class of '69 became involved more with their clubs and sports. We will never forget our Biology lectures, and the nice little specimen hunts we had to go on. Some couples never did find any specimens. Some of us wondered why, but most of knew! This was the year of crushes on local Disc Jockeys. Two girls were often seen checking out WFVA. Right, Ging and Barb? This was the year Susie Carroll arrived and started off a romance with Dennis Dunnington. Couples this year were: Steve Matter & Virginia Ashby, Steve Pasi & Nancy Matter, and Ann Rogers & Dennis Dodson.

In the eleventh grade, we received our class rings. We were becoming impatient and wanted to get the next two years over with. We presented the seniors that year with a fabulous prom, "Southern Serenade," which without the help of Mrs. Armstrong and Mr. Johnson would not have been a success. None of us will ever forget the party at Uncle Billy's after the prom. When the warm days arrived, many of the students started going to the beaches where dances were held; the Black Cat at Colonial Beach and also at Fairview and Virginia beaches. Couples this year were: Pat Davis & Jeff Poole, Marie Gould & Mark Brown, and Steve Pasi & Byrdie Moncure.

Thus ends the adventures of the jolly students from Maury and Layfayette. Now we will see what the students from Walker Grant were up to through their first eleven years of school.

Our first year in school was filled with confusion, happiness, and a taste for show business. Right, Wanda?

As we moved up the ladder of success, we got smaller in number but bigger in heart. We all called our teacher "Mamma."

By the third grade, we were gradually adjusting to the educational atmosphere and were classified as the "intellectuals." Guess what! Some of our guys wanted to change their sex. How about that Peter Rabbit? We participated in the May Day festivities by wrapping the maypole.

By the time we reached the fourth grade, we considered ourselves as little ladies and gentlemen, but our teachers didn't think so. We got quite a few punishments; some of us even ran away from school to escape them. Do you remember, Soup?

In the fifth grade, we thought of ourselves as being brilliant, well-behaved students, but again our teachers contradicted us. Due to our lack of ladylike behavior demonstrated in the cafeteria, some of us were confined to solitary lunches, but that didn't stop us from talking did it, Marty, Wanda, Ethel, and Abby?

By the sixth grade, 6A and 6B were very much opposed to each other. A feud broke out between our two homerooms. This year also marked our best May Day. Several of our classmates represented us in the "African Rainbow Dance." This was the year of confusion for our teachers instead of us. They couldn't tell the difference between Kathryn Beale and her twin, Carolyn. And if the twins happened to go to the wrong homeroom, we didn't tell on them. Did we twins?

Our feud continued through the seventh grade. We completed this year with sad hearts, because we realized that three of our classmates were leaving for J.M. They were Paul Kay, Thomas Rowser, and Edgar Scott.

With the eighth grade came the end of our feuding. We united and elected class officers. They were: Thomas Victory, President; Wanda Coghill, Vice-President; Ethel King, Secretary; and Marty Taylor, Treasurer. Also during that year, we were represented at the Science and Math Conference. Marty Taylor placed first in Math 8.

By the ninth grade, we were really rowdy. Our rowdiness showed up in our third and fourth period Citizenship classes where we played cards, ate candy, and got all the latest news. We had a number of athletes and cheerleaders this year. The athletes were Stanley White, Harold Byrd, Henry Hill, James Howard, and Thomas Victory. While these guys played basketball and football, Jackye Lewis, Herdinia Alsop, Lynette Johnson, Dottie Christopher, Kathryn Beale, and Helen Carter cheered them on to victory. We always had those who loved to chew gum and gossip instead of cheering. Right, Abby! Our class officers for that year were Gladys Ware, President; Marty Taylor, Vice-President; Wanda Coghill, Secretary; and Ethel King, Treasurer.

By the time we reached the tenth grade, a group, headed by Harold Byrd called the "Peanut Gallery," was originated. A number of French students represented us in a French Conference held at George Wythe High School in Richmond. These students were Ethel King, Wanda Coghill, Helen Carter, and Stan White. Three scored in the top 50%. Stan, did you ever get your score? Our Science and Math Conference went on, as usual, with Jackye Lewis placing 2nd in Algebra II and Thel and Wanda Coghill tying for 3rd in Geometry. The best thing that happened to us that year was Franny Brown. She was in love with everybody. Marty Taylor and Lynette Johnson left for J.M. this year.

We finally reached the eleventh grade, and we considered ourselves as the best jolly, jolly juniors there were. More of our classmates left for J.M. Nevertheless, our year was still successful. The most successful part was the Junior-Senior prom. The theme was "Shower of Stars." Miss Homecoming of '68 was fortunate enough to have Sandra Brooks, or "Little Bits," as a part of her court. The officers for that year were Stan White, President; Sandra Grayson, Vice-President; Dottie Christopher, Secretary; Henry Hill, Treasurer; Roxie McMillan, Ass't. treasurer; and Bertina Davis, Business Manager.

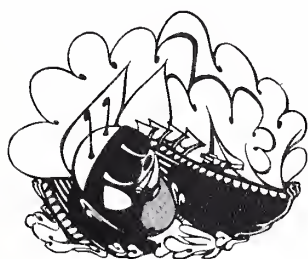

Well, those were the good old days, but now we carry all of those memories of dear old Walker Grant in our hearts as we prepared to start our senior year at James Monroe.

Our twelfth grade year promised graduation for most of us. Right, Gladys!! Our class was led by Scootie who did a great job. We were involved in many activities such as the play, the variety show, and the senior trip. All in all, we had a great year due to the efforts of all the senior class sponsors. Thanks for everything from the class of 1969.

Respectfully submitted:

Kitty Turner
Sandra Brooks
Wanda Coghill
Jim Campbell
Marcia Hibben
Cathy Jennings

I, Marsha Shelton, leave my solos in chorus to Wendy Carpenter.
We, Marguerite Shiffler and Brenda Rose, leave on the "The Good Ship Lollipop."
I, Phil Short, leave my ability to use the teacher's lounge without getting caught to Edwin Derise, who probably will.
I, Ginger Silvey, leave my many falls to Phyllis Wienstein.
I, Charles Simenson, leave my job to next year's auto mechanics.
I, Diane Skinner, leave my height to Pam Stewart.
I, Mary Ann Slothouber, leave my good citizenship to Michelle White.
I, Marianne Smith, leave my eyes to Kay Hailey.
I, Emmett Snead, leave my bull to George Wallace.
I, Lee Snellings, leave the open road to Mark Pritchett.
I, Bertha Southerland, leave Margaret Ellington a big pack of Alka-Seltzer to relieve her tummy ache.
I, Steve Spratt, leave Tiny Tim $1.75 so that he may get a haircut like mine.
I, Ken Stokely, leave my love of Kenmore to next year's basketball lover.
I, W.K. Stratton, leave my locks to Goldi.
I, David Sube, leave my poetry to Henry Gibson.
I, Doug Taylor, leave my one great love in Jimmy Freeman's warehouse.
I, Marcia Taylor, leave my big mouth to anyone who wants it.
I, Mark Taylor, leave my apathy to anyone who cares.
I, Bill Thornton, leave the James Monroe team's tennis balls in the canal.
I, Debbie Tipton, leave my philosophy to Aristotle.
I, Albert Traylor, leave my nickname to the dogs.
I, Tom Trigger, leave to find my ring.
I, Jimmy Trout, leave for the fish pond.
I, Kitty Turner, leave the class history to any junior with a sense of the past.
I, Lillian Ventura, leave with a smile.
I, John Verburg leave my detested middle name to Martha Snead.
I, Thomas Victory, leave Jackie Ross to Larry Cody because Jackye Lewis is leaving with me.
I, Ben Wafle, leave my physical agility to Mr. Johnny Carson.
I, Tom Waite, leave my gavel to Abe Fortas.
I, Julie Weber, leave my constant frustrations to Sharon McAughan.
I, Barbara Weible, leave but not without my radio!
I, Stanley White, leave all my love to Eliza Williams.
I, Stephanie Wickowski, leave my Barracuda to Betty Wright.
I, Becky Zappas, leave my quietness to Betsy Bean.

JMHS ALMA MATER

On the banks of the Rappahannock,
And the ancient King's Highway;
At the head of navigation
And the tide from the Chesapeake Bay,
Stands a city old and honored
May her shadows ne'er grow less;
And the jewel of that city
Is her High School, J.M.H.S.

(Chorus)

Hail, hail, to J.M.H.S.
Our own beloved High;
Though her pathway may be rugged
We will leave her with with a sigh;
In the years before us,
Her name we'll always bless;
For she's our foster mother
Our beloved J.M.H.S.

Four square to the winds of heaven,
Four square to truth and right;
May she stand four square forever,
'Gainst ignorance and strife.
May she ever bear with honor
And her sons and daughters bless,
The flag that flies above her—
Our beloved J.M.H.S.

SENIORS CAUGHT AGAIN

Who said seniors never study??

No wonder we lost that tennis match.

I don't believe a word of it. .

Yonder is a flower child.

Me and my shadow.

Yes, I think we've got this one licked.

The Varsity Football team this year racked up a 5-3-2 record. (Five wins, three losses and two ties). The games themselves were more exciting than the seasonal record suggests. The team earned the name "Comeback Team," by the great comebacks that they made during the season. First of all, they had three straight shut-outs, but yet they didn't give up for the season. They came back strong and didn't lose another game that season. Second, some of the games were won by the "never-say-die" attitude of the team. One of the greatest major comebacks was during the Orange game, the final game of the year. JM was behind the first half of the game, but came through and tied the game in the final minutes of play. Ed Amrhein won the Lions Club "Most Valuable Player" award and George Truslow won the Incentive award.

Second row: Cody, Stewart, Boyles, Lewis, Nolan, Mussleman, Derise, O'Toole, Truslow, Smith, Moncure, Boutchyard, Smith, Jackson, Johnson, Hall, Coble, Neri. Third row: Poulus, Catlett, Stubbs, Rovira, Coleman, Jackson, Brann, Moore, Elwell, Chilton, Powell, Payne, Zell, Scott, Seay, Brooks, Mueller, Walker, Garner, Gaines, Simpson, Thompson, Morris.

The J.V. team had a good year. They were district champs and they only lost one game, which was by one point. Most of the games were shutouts.

A 22 and 1 record, District Champs, Northern Regional Champs, Sportsmanship trophy winner, and 1-B State Champs pretty well describes the JM basketball team this year. The team scored over a hundred points two times and the only team they lost to was Varina. They had four very close games during the year in which they won during the last seconds of the game. Two of which were the Northern Regional Championship game, in which "Hogie" Garnett shot a jumper in the last second and won the game; and the 1-B State Championship game in which Dennis Dodson, standing under the basket, put it up to bring JM from behind and win the game by one point. Ben Waffle won the incentive award and Hogie Garnett won the most valuable player award. Hogie Garnett, Kenny Stokley, and Clarence Selph were named to the All District team and were the top vote getters. Hogie was also named to the All-State team.

JV Basketball

The JV team went undefeated this year and continued the JM Junior Varsity winning streak to 42 consecutive wins. The team was the Battlefield District JV Champs and the only team that came close in beating them was Varina. The team was well rounded and balanced in playing ability.

CHAMPS IN ACTION

And the crowd loved us.

Mr. Morris gives the boys a pep-talk.

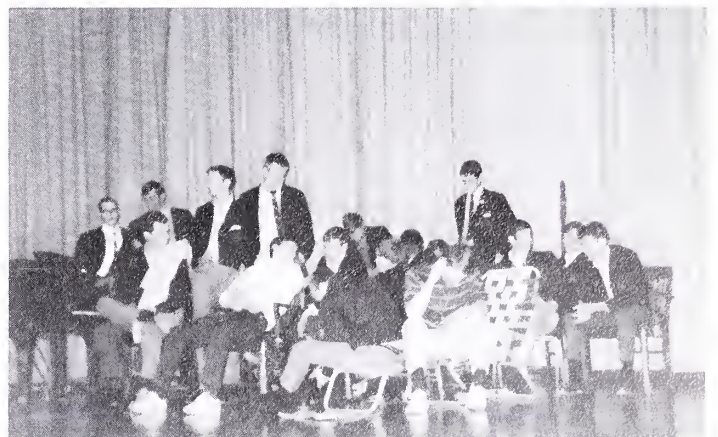

The start of another victory for J.M.

I'm so happy I could just kiss you.

They left ordinary players and returned champs.

Here are the guys that made our school tops.

STATE CHAMPS OF J.M.

We were so proud of our Jackets!

Kenny cuts down another victory net!

J.M. spirit shines through again.

And were we happy!

Who's tired???

What do you think, Mr. Morris?

Tennis

The tennis team this year was sponsored by Mr. Wilson and coached by Steve Spratt.

The season ended with three losses and three wins. Steve lost only one single match during the season.

Doug is ready for his opponent's serve.

Wrestling

Wrestling is just one of the many sports offered to boys at J.M. This year's wrestling team was coached by Mr. Wilson. Not as many boys went out for wrestling this year as was hoped for, but we are looking forward to more interest to be shown next year.

This year's wrestling was made up of three matches, J.M. winning all but one. Much interest and support was shown on the part of Barry Mussleman, Dennis Poulos, and Cliff Galyen who contributed toward the success of the team.

Track

The JM track team had some very good performances this year. But again, lack of depth hurt the overall team performance.

JM opened the season with a close loss to the Culpeper track team 59-68. This was in spite of the fact that JM won nine of the 16 events that day. The team had some bright spots with Hogie Garnett going 6'3 1/4 to break the old record by 1/4 inch and Lewis McGehee ran 1:56.9 to break the 880 mark by .2 seconds.

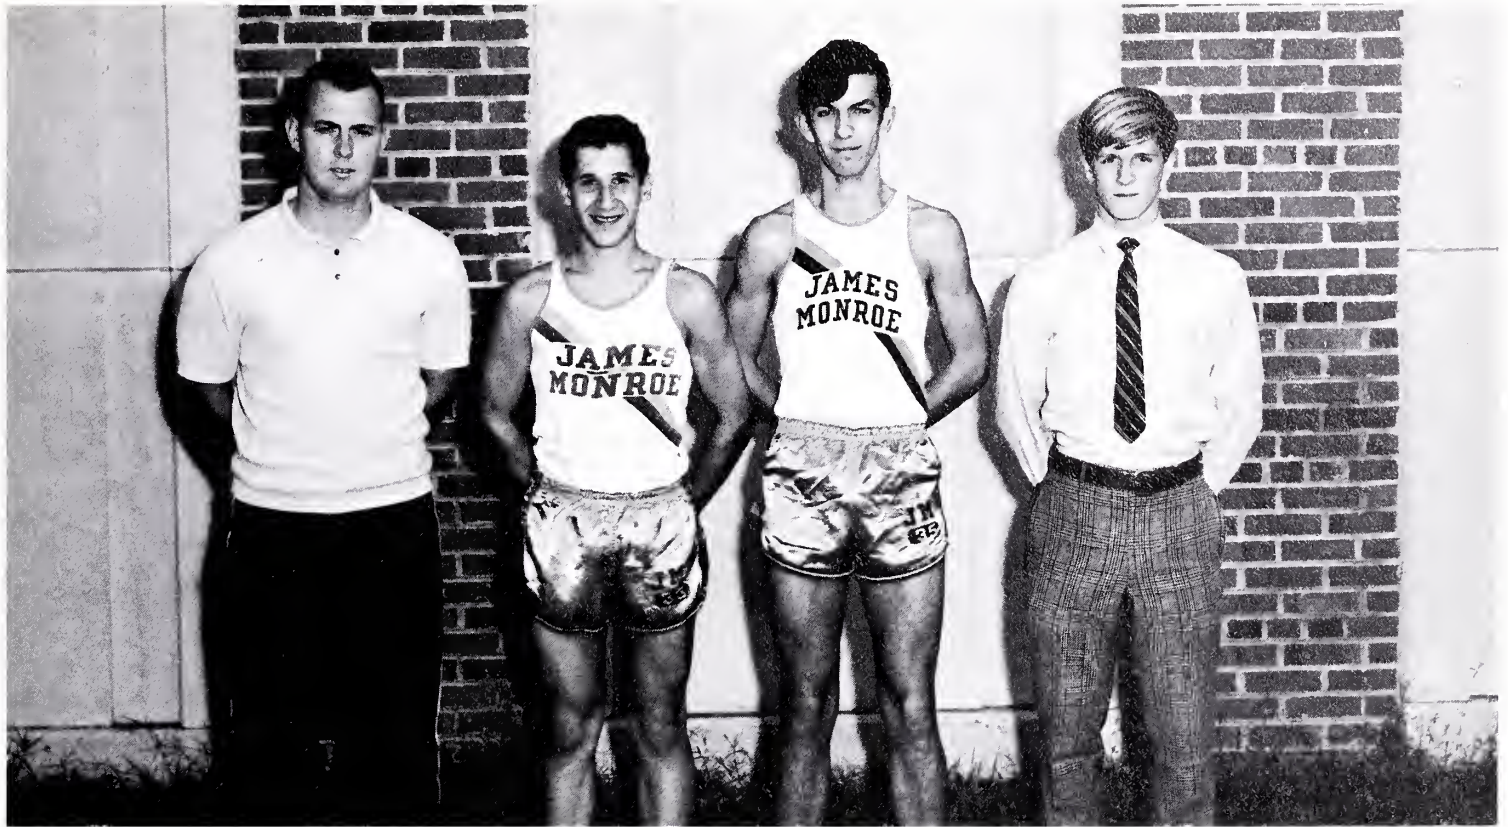

Like this, Mr. Hicks?

Let there be peace.

Cross Country

Left to right, first row: Hicks, Chasen, Pinker, McGehee. Not pictured: Don Munsey.

The Cross-Country team had a very experiencing year. They ran courses which were no more than cow pastures, two to three miles long.

Cross-Country is a separate sport although it is a good builder for distance runners in indoor and outdoor track.

Lewis makes a fine finish.

You've come a long way, baby.

Stanley is urged on by supporters.

Varsity Baseball

The Varsity Baseball team ended its season with five wins and six losses, one of the wins was over Stafford for the first time in many years. JM ended with a losing record, but there was a lot of spirit in the team members. There was also a lot of good playing, hustling, determination, and spirit on the part of the entire team.

They say a Wind-up always helps.

Baseball team members are workers.

JV Baseball

The JV Baseball team this year was district champs and had a very good season. They only lost one game and that was to their rival, Stafford. The boys put forth a good deal of practice time which paid off in their constant wins over opposing teams.

Who says I'm not a big tough baseball player???

Bet you can't hit just one!

I'll just be a minute, fellows.

A full stomach always make me play better.

Varsity Hockey

With Mrs. Atkins as coach, the varsity hockey placed third in the district. Co-captain, Sue Carter, was tied as second highest scorer, and Ginger Silvey was the highest scorer. Ginnie Johnson received the incentive award and Marianne Smith received most valuable player.

The J.V. team under Mrs. McKay placed first in the district.

But I didn't kick her!

Driving towards the goal

J.V. Hockey

Come on girls, get the ball!

Practice makes perfect!

Gymnastics

Left to right, first row: Johnson, Hall, Marders. Second row: LeCouteur, Franklin, Wright, Forbush, Leitch.

The gymnastic team was coached this year by Mrs. Atkins, Mrs. Houston, and Miss McKay. The girls did very well. In the meet held here, Debby Wright won the title of "Best all Around" for beginners. Sarah Forbush missed the same title for intermediate by one tenth of a point.

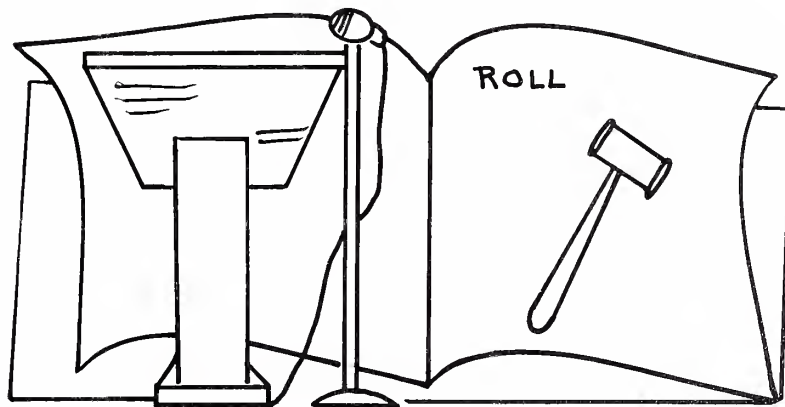

That girl's flipped.

Sure do wish that I could jump around like that!

CLUBS

SCA

The Student Cooperative Association is the strength of James Monroe High School. It is a representative organization made up of all the students. The SCA council consists of five officers: president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, reporter, a representative from each homeroom and all club and class presidents. This year's activities included the orientation of transfer students, the annual magazine drive, the preparation of Christmas baskets for needy families, a clothing drive for the under privileged children of Appalachia, a revision of the dress code, managed the bookstore first semester, and installed a Coke machine. The SCA also reorganized the Foreign Exchange Student program at JM and arranged for the presentation of all the assemblies during the year.

The National Honor Society is an honorary organization consisting of outstanding sophomore, juniors, and senior students. Members are selected by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. A member must maintain a 90 average and display honorable and praiseworthy conduct and attitude at all times. New members are tapped into the society in a special assembly during American Education Week. This year the National Honor Society gave a $100 college scholarship to a deserving senior.

Key Club

The Key Club, a selected group of boys, who have shown leadership and quality in their school and community work, is a branch of the Kiwanis Club. These boys have sponsored school and community improvement projects. Some of the projects the Club sponsored this year were the March of Dimes drive, painting the ground-dug J.M., Car Wash, Mystery Yellow Jacket Contest and printing of Basketball programs. The year offered many interesting experiences for the boys as they heard various speakers at their meetings and attended the Key Club convention in Richmond.

Debate

Debating demands a great deal of hard work and time from the eager students who participate in it. This year's debating team showed that hard work really pays off in the end. One of the many activities of the club was a debate with two members of the Harvard debate team. It proved to be both amusing and informative. This year's team was under the direction of Mr. Waddell. Mark Brown, Larry Silver, Bill Broughton, and John Pinker made up the affirmative team. The negative team consisted of Cathy Jennings, Ruth Ellen Powell, Bill Janis and Jim Martin. The subject for debate was "Resolved: That the United States should adopt a system of compulsory service for all citizens."

Junior Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross is composed of one representative from each homeroom. The annual membership drive is in the fall followed by a second drive to collect articles for the Western State Hospital. The student body participates in these drives to make them successful.

MONROE ECHO

Publishing an annual requires a great deal of hard work and effort which was put forth willingly by the Monroe Echo staff. The staff sold advertisements to area businesses as a means of financing the annual. Staff members were everywhere at once taking hundreds of pictures and gathering vital information to produce a great yearbook. The staff, lead by its editors, worked all year composing the annual of "69."

Office Assistants

Left to right: Wright, Rose, Faulkner, Shannon, LeCouteur, Ross, Smith, Cox, Payne, Newton.

Any student who has a study period and wishes to help in the main office may do so by applying to the office. Two girls are chosen each period for this work which includes answering the telephone, delivering messages, filing cards, putting up mail, recording attendance, and any general work which needs to be done. A student doing this work renders a real service to the school as well as learning office techniques.

No wonder she has a Corvette.

Second row: Stone, Powell, Dagg, Heflin, Rose, Courtney, Trigger, Ballard, Hart, Perry, Parker, Hill, Jackson. Third row: Harris, Glazebrook, Griffin, Snellings, Moore, Willis, Lewis, Gray, Beale, Brown, Boulware, Kendall.

Distributive Education is a three year course offered to high school students whose career interests lie in the field of Distributing and Marketing. D.E. I for sophomores consists of just class room instruction while D.E. II for Juniors and Seniors and D.E. III for Seniors combines classroom instruction which supervises on-the-job training. Areas of instruction include: advertising, selling, display, job application and interviews, parliamentary procedure, personality development, human relations, etc. D.E. is designed for the student who plans to continue his education after high school graduation with a career goal in Marketing, Distribution and Distribution Education as well as the student who plans to go to work immediately.

DECA (Distributive Education Class of America) is the National, Professional Youth organization for students enrolled in D.E. All club activities and projects are school centered, thus contributing to the school's purpose of preparing well-advised, well trained citizens.

DECA members learn to serve as leaders and followers and through contests in competition with other schools have an opportunity to gain local, district, state and even national recognition for individual and group achievements.

ICT

The purpose of Industrial Cooperative Training is to help build leadership and promote character, fellowship, citizenship, and craftsmanship. The members of the club attend classes for half a day and work the other half. The employees grade the students on the quality of their work.

VOT

Vocational Office Training is a program in which classroom study is coordinated with on-the-job training. In this program the students have their schedules arranged so that they attend classes half of the school day and are employed in an office during the remaining part of the day.

Music Club

Basilisk

The Basilisk, James Monroe's literary magazine, is published annually in the spring. It was developed to encourage students to develop the talent of creative writing and artwork and to work with criticisms. The students are asked each year to submit works and the Basilisk staff chooses the best for composing the magazine.

Although this is only the third year the Basilisk has been published, through the efforts of the staff and sponsors, student interest has greatly increased and a very professional and successful magazine was published.

Lined up for a Basilisk.

Have you seen the new Basilsik??

Basilisk readers get all A's.

MAJORETTES

Left to right, first row: Kersey, Newton. Second row: LcCouteur, Lynch, Prasse, Lewis, Cox, Rattican, Cousins, Wright.

The majorettes and flagettes have participated in many parades this year. They have won ten trophies and many medals. Flashy new uniforms that cost about $50 each were bought by each girl. Each girl wore her uniform proudly and performed with the best of her ability.

Here come the Flagettes!

Concert Band

The Concert Band plays for all school assembly programs and presents two concerts annually to the public. The band gave its annual winter concert on February 15 and participated in the annual Sights and Sounds program in May. The Concert Band sponsored eight students to the District I All-Regional Band at King George. The band participated in the District I Band Festival in Richmond in March and sponsored students to the District I Solo Festival. The Concert Band performed a concert for the Kiwanis Club Talent Show and also for the high school graduation.

What note was that, Mr. Bly?

Marching Band

This organization is composed of all high school musicians who wish to participate in this band. The Marching Band plays for all football games both home and away, all civic parades in Fredericksburg, and those parades of neighboring communities deemed beneficial. This year the band placed first in the King George Festival Parade and the Mineral Fireman's Parade. The Marching Band has 80 members this year with newly uniformed majorettes and flashy new overlays on the band uniforms.

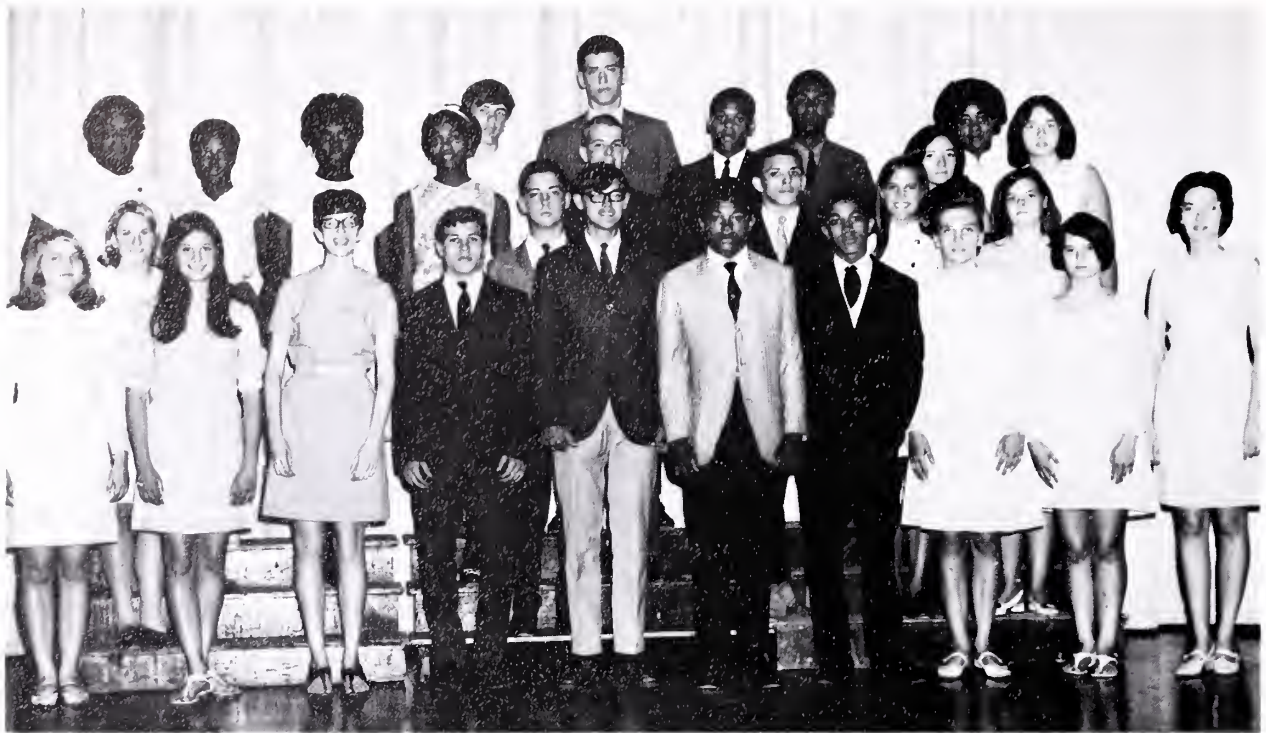

The band performs at half-time.

Strike up the band!

Chorus

SENIOR PLAY

Upon entering the James Monroe Auditorium on either November 21 or 22, one might have mistaken it for a convent. At 7:30 P.M. on these two nights, the senior class of 1969 presented "Haloos and Spotlights," a satire on advertising in which a Catholic nun, Sister Marilee, won a beauty contest. The group of eight nuns fought an exhausting battle with the sponsor of the contest to allow Sister Marilee to keep her title.

The cast of 27 was directed by Mrs. Lee Wingate Pappandreou with the aid of her student directors, Mare Lipman and David Ellis. The job of prompting was done well by Sue Carter and Debbie Tipton.

Well if I was doing it?

Let's get to work girls.

Maybe we should discuss it.

Wait a minute, I'll get it!

You boys get to work over there.

That really looks good.

1969 Junior - Senior Prom

The theme of the Junior-Senior Prom this year was "Dancing in the Streets." The entire gym was transformed into a small city including store fronts, such as Lou's Place and The Soul Center. The Candymen of Richmond provided the music for the "dancing in the streets."

The Junior class, under the guidance of Mrs. Casserly, worked especially hard to make Saturday night, April 26, 1969, a memorable night for every junior and senior.

Queen Debby Blake and her escort, Sammy Franzello

The Candymen belt out great music.

What did you get, Mrs. Casserly?

Every couple is really having a great time!

Especially this one!

Senior Trip

Thursday morning, May 22, at 6:30 AM, the Senior class of '69 boarded three Continental Trailway buses for New York City. After arriving, they toured the New York Stock Exchange and the United Nations Building. That night, everyone enjoyed and "stuffed" themselves at Mamma Leone's, and all were fascinated by the walk through Greenwich Village to the Bitter End.

The following two days proved to be busy ones. The seniors visited Lincoln Center, The American Museum of Natural History, the Empire State Building, and the Metropolitan Art Museum. Some of the students went to the play, "Cabaret," while the others went to the Statue of Liberty or a ball game. All the students attended Radio City Music Hall and the Broadway Play, "Man of La Mancha."

Saturday night arrived and the seniors said "Goodbye" to New York and then boarded the buses at 11:50 PM for their return trip to good old Fredericksburg. Everyone was tired and glad to be home, but all agreed that they had a great time and saw many interesting things.

All ready to go.

Ann, you can't be tired yet!

Do I look Chinese?

Now here's a handsome guy.

Who are you imitating, Mary Ann?

What do we have here!!

A tired group of seniors.

SENIOR ASSEMBLY

And we left our grave belongings to be used in good faith.

Is this a rerun?

The loud ones get in everything.

Did somebody need a kleenex????

Who said I was a bully.

What a J.M. line-up!

Superlative dancers are at it again.

Look who I see!

And then they told what we had done!

He really fooled us, didn't he?

And we brought back the Variety Show.

Suddenly it's up to you!

Commencement puts you right on the threshold of an exciting new phase of your life. Now it is up to you to use wisely the knowledge gained in the past years in selecting your career. Actually there has never been a more exciting time to enter the world of business or advanced education. Now, more than ever before, America's continued growth depends on young people like you for the new ideas we need to maintain our leadership in the world. Right in your own community, American Viscose is planning for this very exciting future and we hope that it may be possible for you to join us in making it a wonderful reality. But whatever your endeavor, we hope your dreams of today will come true tomorrow. Good luck!
